	Rose Quartz Chips Resin Tree	C1SC061	This product uses rose quartz chips as the core material, and uses the glue dripping process to create a unique tree shape. As a decorative ornament, it can add natural charm to home and office spaces, and enhance the aesthetic atmosphere of the environment with romantic rose quartz elements.
	Carnelian Teacup for Decoration	C1SC062	This ornament is made of carnelian and presented in the shape of a cup, integrating the beauty of natural gemstones into decorative functions. The color of the cup body presents an orange-red gradient effect, and the texture of carnelian is like a flowing scroll, showing the unique texture of the material.
	Amethyst Chips Tree with Ceramic Gourd Base	C1SC063	The blue ceramic bottle has a reddish-brown texture, the branches in the bottle stretch out, the amethyst turns into clusters of flowers, and the green leaves show the natural charm. As a good decoration, its "wealth-attracting" meaning injects good expectations into the space, beautifies the environment, and conveys auspicious blessings.
	Irregular Amethyst on the Sika Antlers	C1SC064	The golden copper deer body has elegant lines, and the antlers are inlaid with amethysts. The crystals are transparent, adding a sense of refinement and natural charm to the space. As a home decoration, it can beautify the environment. The "purification" meaning of amethyst makes it a special gift for housewarming occasions, conveying good wishes.
	Natural Stone Block Incense Holder	C1SC065	This product is made of natural stone and presented in a block shape, which cleverly combines practical functions with natural beauty. When used as an incense holder, it can not only stably hold the incense sticks, but its natural stone material can also add an artistic atmosphere to the space, combining decoration and practicality.
